Manaras-Opera Places Second in Professional Door Dealer Magazine's 2011 Best of Business Poll

PHOENIX – December 2011 – Professional Door Dealer (PDD) magazine, the trusted and independent source of information for the garage door and access control industry, is pleased to announce that Manaras-Opera has placed in the top five winners in the industry's only Best of Business dealers' choice poll, in the category of Best Commercial Operators. For the complete list of results, please consult <http://www.professionaldoordealer.com/Best-of-Business.aspx>.

About Manaras-Opera

Manaras-Opera, part of the Canimex Group, has been designing, assembling and marketing operators for commercial and industrial garage doors, commercial grilles and shutters for more than 30 years.

The company prides itself on having one of the most comprehensive, reliable and innovative product lines on the market. Product offerings consist of their signature OPERA brand of jackshaft, gear head, trolley and slider operators, for medium and heavy-duty applications. Their product line also includes a wide range of modifications, entrapment protection devices, and control accessories, providing solutions for commercial and industrial projects.

The Manaras-Opera head office and manufacturing facility is located in Montréal, Québec, Canada, with an expanded distribution network across North America.

"Receiving a second place ranking for the second year in a row is an amazing accomplishment for us," says Pierre-Louis Foucault, Manaras-Opera's Operations Manager. "We are extremely pleased with the results."

About the Poll

Industry professionals were invited to vote at www.professionaldoordealer.com/vote. The poll was open for three months, and voters chose from more than 20 categories, picking their top three company choices in each. The top five winners in each category were highlighted in a special December issue of PDD.
